

TWO SCORE AFTER TWENTY-ONE JOBS

So Nineteen Candidates Will Meet Disaster in Municipal Primary To-Morrow.

HOTTEST FIGHT IN MADISON

Ten Citizens in That Ward, With Three From Southside—Polls Close at 6:37 P. M.

Members of the Common Council to serve Richmond for two years from September 1 next, will be nominated in a Democratic primary to-morrow. Five men are to be selected in each of the four wards, thus making the new Council a body of twenty instead of forty members. Thirteen members of the Board of Aldermen hold over for the coming two years. One vacancy in the upper branch is to be filled in Clay Ward, where President Robert Whittier has not offered for re-election, getting out of the Council in order to run for the Administrative Board. The sun rises to-morrow morning at 5:17; it sets to-morrow night at 6:57. The boundaries of the new precincts together with the voting places will be found on another page in the Times Dispatch to-day.

The City Democratic Committee will meet to-morrow night at Murphy's Hotel to receive the returns. Forty candidates are contesting for the twenty-one seats, making it obvious that many must fall by the wayside. Ten men not now in the City Council are in the race, while fifteen members of the Council have voluntarily retired, and are not offering for re-election. Five other members of the Council are staying out of this primary to run for the Administrative Board, several Aldermen, ousted by redistricting, are candidates for the Council.

In Madison Ward, Much the hottest fight is being waged in new Madison Ward, made up of the central section of the city up to Eighteenth Street, and embracing all of North Richmond. Ten candidates are running for the five seats of them formerly in old Madison Ward, two redistricted from Monroe Ward, and three former representatives of the Southside. It seems probable that the former city of Manchester will have representation, and it has put forward as its candidates John W. Moore, Carter C. Jones, and R. L. Patram. Other members of the Council from old Washington Ward having retired, Messrs. Moore and Jones have seen active service on the Committee on Streets, serving on the subcommittee which selected plans for the new Mayo Bridge. Mr. Moore won high commendation by his independent stand in voting his convictions in the case of George W. Ratcliffe, the effort of certain of his constituents to control his voice. Of the members from the Northside, Messrs. Gilbert K. Pollock and Frank M. Reade are the surviving Council members of the special committee which prepared the new plan of government, and their reelection has been urged by the group that the new plan of government should have a trial at the hands of its friends. Mr. Pollock is subcommittee of the Street Committee, and one of the active floor leaders of the Council. Mr. Reade is a member of the Committee on Finance, and has taken an active part in measures regarding the public health and relief of the poor.

In Clay and Lee. In Clay Ward there is a contest between George W. Ratcliffe, an attorney, and George M. Ratcliffe, a grocer, for the seat in the Board of Aldermen to be vacated by President Whittier. President R. Lee Peters, of the Common Council, has been redistricted from Henry into Clay Ward, and is offering for re-election. If nominated as President of the Council, his reelection as President of the Council is assured. He had won high approval by his independent course in committee assignments, and in his fight for reform of councilman's procedure.

In Lee Ward two of the most high-spirited men in the Council—Messrs. Pollard and Ferguson—have retired. Messrs. Butler, Ratcliffe and Watkins are offering for re-election, with Messrs. Vonderhehr and Powell, redistricted from Henry Ward. Mr. Vonderhehr won strong support north of Broad Street by his patronage of the race association, and the official patron of the four-ward ordinance, having offered two years ago a plan cutting the city into three wards, and offering to fifteen members. New in offering in this ward are Messrs. Ward, and Larkin W. Glazebrook, Jr.

In Jefferson Ward. New Jefferson Ward embraces all of the city East of Eighteenth Street, and the Mechanicsville Turnpike. Eight old members from Jefferson and Mechanicsville Wards are running, with three new candidates, Messrs. Gallagher, Welsh and Davidson. Morgan B. Mills has become the storm center of the campaign, having announced as his platform his opposition to the four-ward ordinance. Mr. Mills is chairman of the Water Committee, and is recognized as one of the active and alert leaders of Council action.

Grand Chief of Sisters. Mrs. Sallie J. Murphy, of Lynchburg, grand chief of the order of Pythian Sisters of Virginia, is registered at the Richmond Hotel as the guest of Richmond Temple No. 5. She will meet with No. 5 in regular session this evening at 8 o'clock in Smithfield Hall.

BOY BEATEN AND THEN ROBBED

Recovers Consciousness, and Gives Police Name of Man Who Assaulted Him.

With his cheek bone fractured and his scalp wounded, George Bryce, colored, ten years old, was found unconscious yesterday at the corner of Canal Street. After he had been treated by Dr. R. E. Watts, ambulance surgeon of the City Hospital, and was able to speak, he said that he had been assaulted by a negro man, who struck him with a brick and robbed him of a $5 note, which his mother had given him to have changed at a nearby drug store.

The boy knew his alleged assailant, and told Dr. Watts that he was J. B. Gibson, employed by the Richmond Transfer Company. Gibson was later arrested and taken to the Second Police Station.

According to the boy's story, his mother had given him the money and he was holding it in his hand while walking up Canine Street. At Canal he noticed the negro, and said that the latter saw the money.

He is then said to have picked up a brick and struck the child on the face and head. He evidently grabbed the money which had fallen to the pavement, and ran. For the time being the spot was deserted, and the limp form of the boy was found by several negroes who were passing.

OLD REPORT IS AGAIN DENIED

New York This Time Revived Rumor That President Stevens Would Quit C. & O.

A special dispatch from Cincinnati last night said:

"President George W. Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, accompanied by his physician and John D. Potts, general passenger agent, arrived in Cincinnati last night from Frodo, Ind., where he remained about a week recuperating from a recent illness. He spent the night in this city and left to-day for Richmond. He was accompanied East by Fourth Vice President Martin A. Caples, General Manager E. W. Griggs, and Assistant to the President G. B. Wall. General Superintendent J. Paul Stevens accompanied the party over the Cincinnati division.

"It developed last night that it was the first time in forty years that Mr. Stevens had been taken to a hospital, and that he had improved much in health during his stay at the Indiana Springs. Mr. Stevens gave emphatic denial to the report that reached Cincinnati from New York last Friday that he was going to retire from the Chesapeake and Ohio service. He said that the report started in the East when it was known that Mr. Stevens was ill and finally reached this city."

ARRESTS FOLLOW STREET WRANGLE

Threats and Oaths of Negro and Young White Men Arouse Neighborhood.

Loud threats accompanied by oaths and general disorder yesterday morning shortly before 2 o'clock aroused the entire neighborhood at Second and Main Streets.

Awakened from their sleep by the noise many men and women opened windows to see what caused the trouble. Several persons, thinly clad, ventured to their front doors.

Not until John W. King, a watchman employed by the Virginia Railway & Power Company, at which point where his presence is made necessary on account of repairs to the tracks, interfered did the racket stop.

According to Ernest Jeffrey, a young white man, with several companions, he was walking through Main Street when he was cursed, without provocation, by Harry Harris, colored, employed by the Power Company as a switchman. Jeffrey drew back to strike the negro when the latter put his hand beneath his coat and threatened to shoot him.

In the meantime Jeffrey's companions came up, and they were joined by several other young white men. It was at this point that the noise excited by threats and oaths took place. Believing the negro to have gun Jeffrey and his supporters momentarily stood at bay, when one of them suddenly stepped forth and struck Harris. The latter ran.

King came forward at this juncture, and then Jeffrey and the others gave up their pursuit of Harris.

Patrolman Stephens also arrived on the scene, attracted by the disturbance, and taking the men of all concerned swore out warrants charging them with disorderly conduct and fighting in the street. Besides Jeffrey and Harris the following white men were arrested: H. A. Howell, M. C. Cardozo, H. Page, J. C. Herbert, Jr. and J. L. McQue.

None was taken to the station house, each being immediately bailed for his appearance in Police Court this morning.

ARRESTED FOR TRESPASS AT CURLE'S NECK FARM

Robert W. Crittenden, of this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Special Officer Taylor, of Henrico county, charged with trespass upon the premises of Curle's Neck Farm. The Richmond man, it is reported, drove out to the farm in an automobile, and upon entering the premises was asked by the owner to leave. The men engaged in a spile interchange of words, with the result that a warrant was sworn out against the automobilist before a local magistrate. Crittenden accompanied the officer to the Henrico county jail and was released after giving bail in the sum of $100. The case will be heard before Magistrate T. J. Puryear next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

PREACHERS TALK ON WHITE PLAGUE

In the calendar of the National Antituberculosis Society, yesterday was known as "Tuberculosis Sunday." Churches in all of the large cities in the country gave place in their services to addresses upon the prevention and treatment of the great scourge of civilization. In a number of Richmond churches the pastors discussed tuberculosis and the nation-wide campaign of publicity which is being waged by antituberculosis and related organizations in an effort to check its spread.

Free literature on the subject, furnished by the Virginia Antituberculosis Association, was distributed in a number of churches after the services. The movement met with special encouragement in the colored churches. Mortality records show a constantly increasing death rate from this disease among the colored people, and the leaders of the race are joining hands with the scientific and medical societies in the campaign against its spread.

In several of the colored churches physicians mounted the pulpit and addressed the congregations upon the most enlightened methods of dealing with tuberculosis, laying stress upon the importance of personal cleanliness and proper sanitation in living quarters.

Preacher as well as physician agreed that with the wider introduction of efficient drainage and sanitation, and a proper segregation of infected persons, death from tuberculosis will become no more frequent than death from typhoid. Just as the last named disease has been driven from many infected communities, they said, the white plague will be transformed from a disease of civilization into a disease of ignorance. In the fight against the plague, said one physician, much remains to be done in factories and workshops, where improper conditions are still a fruitful source of the disease.

FELL FROM PORCH

Playful Lick Comes Warren to Drop Distance of Twelve Feet.

Leroy Warren, colored, was dangerously hurt yesterday afternoon, when he fell twelve feet from the porch at his home, 12 Littlepage Street. He had been sitting on the rail, and one of several companions with him, playfully struck him on the back, causing him to lose his balance and fall to the ground.

Stole His Groceries.

Emmett Cardwell, of 219 North Nineteenth Street, yesterday reported to the police of the First District, that his home had been entered the night before and groceries valued at $6 stolen.

POLICEMEN WILL SHOOT FOR TROPHY

Gun Practice Ordered by Chief to Begin Within Next Two Weeks.

SOME ARE EXPERTS ALREADY

Plans Under Way for Annual Spring Inspection on May 8.

Within the next two weeks, according to a statement made yesterday by Chief of Police Werner, members of the department will have an opportunity to test their skill as marksmen.

Efforts are now being made to secure the use of the Howitzer's Army for a range. As soon as permission is obtained, targets will be installed.

While there are many good shots among the Richmond police, there are some whose aim will undoubtedly be greatly benefited by a little practice. The target practice will not interfere with the duties of the police, as they will be permitted to shoot only during their hours off.

To spur them on, there is a handsome silver cup as a trophy for the best shot in the city. The prize has been held by the men of the Second District.

It has been the cause of spirited rivalry between each district. Captain Kops, of the Second District, is confident that his men will be able to maintain their supremacy and retain the cup.

Captain Harfoot and Captain Wright, of the First and Third districts, respectively, entertain high hopes of capturing it.

For Spring Inspection.

Chief Werner is now making preparations for the spring inspection of the members of the department, which will take place on May 8.

In new uniforms, the one hundred and sixty-three men, composing the three districts, will assemble at their respective stationhouses, and will be reviewed by Major Werner and the Board of Police Commissioners.

The spring inspection is not quite so formal that which takes place each fall. All of the patrolmen, lieutenants and mounted officers on that occasion assemble at the City Hall and participate in a brief parade following the inspection.

However, Major Werner is equally as earnest at this season to see that each of the men are properly equipped as at the fall review, making it as much as important event.

The summer uniforms of the policemen this year will be of blue serge instead of the heavier worsted which has been in use during past years. This cloth was decided upon as it is believed it will prove more comfortable for the men.

The only change in hats will be among the officers of the traffic squad, who will be identified by white canvas helmets.

WAITING FOR RETURNS

Business of City Government Halted Until After Primary.

The calendar of meetings at the City Hall for to-night has been cleared in order that all candidates for reelection may put in the final work of their campaign. Some members whose chief activity in the Council has been to move to suspend the rule forbidding smoking in the chamber, desire to tell the voters just one more word that they are running on their record.

The committee on Printing and Claims is called for 5 o'clock this afternoon. The Committee on Markets is on the calendar for to-morrow night. It is expected that it will not meet unless it assembles at Murphy's Hotel in the hall where the election returns are being received.

But the business of government will be resumed with a rush on Wednesday. Whether men have won or lost they will take up again the burden of grinding out the city's business, which must be carried on by the present Council until August 21.

Meetings for Wednesday are: Committee on Relief of the Poor at 5:30 o'clock; Committee on Streets, Street Cleaning and Light at 8 o'clock; Thursday night the investigation of the curriculum in the public schools will be resumed at 7:30 o'clock, and the Committee on Cemeteries, Grounds and Buildings and Electricity will meet at 8 o'clock.

ANYBODY LOST A BOY?

Colored Lad Sent to City Home to Await Claimant.

The police of the Second District are seeking lost last night with his mother, a boy who was found Saturday night by Officer Veltz in Penitentiary Bottom. The child, who had with him a huge kite, was unable to say where his home was. He spent the night at the Second Station and yesterday afternoon was sent to the City Home to be cared for. He gave his name as Richard Brown, nine years old. No report of a missing colored boy has been made.

Willing to Stand Trial.

E. P. Moore, a South Richmond salesman, lost last night with his attorney, J. M. Turner, for Durham, N. C., to answer a charge of violating North Carolina regulations in regard to soliciting orders for the sale of liquor. Police Officer Stone, of Durham, arrived here Saturday night with several papers from Governor Kitchen, but Moore agreed not to contest extradition, and accompanied the officer back to North Carolina.

MUSIC FESTIVAL BEGINS TO-NIGHT

Famous Singers Arrive by Special for Wednesday Club Concerts.

YOU MUST BE THERE EARLY

Doors Will Be Closed During Each Number to Avoid Disturbance.

Beginning this evening the cycle of musical America will for the first period of two days be centered upon Richmond. A group of famous artists gathered from the music-loving nations of Europe and from the best talent in America arrived in the city in a special train from Atlanta last night to take part in the nineteenth annual musical festival of the Wednesday Club, probably the most eminent musical organization in the Southern States.

While it is admittedly in doubtful taste to attempt to reduce pure art to a basis of dollars and cents, the magnitude of the Wednesday Club's undertaking scarcely needs to be pointed out without a backward glance at the toll these world-renowned artists exact for their two-day sojourn in Richmond. The club's first concert is said to have cost only $1,000. With the increase in membership and attendance came a corresponding increase in the annual expense of the festival, until the high-water mark was reached in the present one, which, it is stated, will cost the club in guarantee and other expenses more than $13,000.

Important to Be on Time.

This evening's concert at the City Auditorium will be at 8:20 o'clock upon the minute, when the doors will be closed. No one will be admitted until the first number is over. The management is particularly anxious that ticket holders come as early as possible, so that every one may be seated before the performance begins. The increase in membership and attendance seriously interfere with the enjoyment of the concert by the rest of the audience, and strict orders have been issued to the ushers to refuse admittance during the performance of any number.

There will be an intermission of ten minutes between the first and second parts of each concert, and a trumpet call will announce the close of the intermission. Women in the audience will be expected to remove their hats. The same rules will apply to both evening performances and to the single afternoon concert, which begins to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock.

Musical Virginia Will Attend.

The festival, which is easily the premier musical event of the State, will attract lovers of the art from every section of the Commonwealth. Hardly a conservatory of music or woman's college in the State will be without a delegation. Large reservations made for the festival indicate that there will be no lack of amateur artists and critics at the three performances. A number of tickets have been sold to persons in North Carolina, Maryland and other nearby States.

On the subject of the artists themselves and the quality of their art no reader of newspapers or musical journals need further information. Whoever reaches its boldest expression, be it in London, Berlin, New York or Vienna, the names Alma Gluck, Louise Homer, Riccardo Martin and Henri Scott are as well known as the names of the reigning monarchs. The fact that all of the artists who appear in the Wednesday Club concerts rank high as principals in the Metropolitan Company is in itself sufficient assurance of their standing in the world of music.

The festival will be assisted by the celebrated orchestra of the Metropolitan Opera House. It will be under the direction of Josef Pasternack, one of the principal conductors.

Artists Who Will Sing.
The soloists at the concert will be: Mme. Gluck, soprano; Mme. Louise Homer, contralto; Riccardo Martin, tenor; Karl Jern, tenor; Clarence Whitehill, baritone, and Henri Scott, basso. Zimballist, the famous Russian concert to-morrow at the afternoon Richmond piano virtuoso, who will perform at the matinee concert, has been in the city for the past two weeks, having come from Germany especially for this occasion.

The Wednesday Club chorus contains 250 voices, and is under the direction of Louis E. Wetzel. The other principals are: Ernest H. Cosby, accompanist; Mrs. Florence D. Hequembourg and Miss Katherine Thurston, violinists; and Ben Brockenbrough, W. S. Henning and B. S. Jackson, violinists.

HARVARD TO HELP VIRGINIA BOYS

Local Club Makes Announcement of Scholarship Worth $150.

A new opportunity for some Virginia boy desiring to go to Harvard has lately been created by the Harvard Club of Virginia, announcement of a scholarship just having been made by the scholarship committee. The committee, consisting of the Rev. W. R. Bowie, of St. Paul's, chairman; Roman Walsh and E. D. Harris, secretary of the club, has decided that a scholarship of $150 shall be awarded annually to a properly qualified resident of the Old Dominion, during his first year in Harvard, as a candidate for the degree of A. B. or S. B. This means that any Virginian wishing to enter the freshman class may receive the scholarship before entrance. If during any year no freshman should qualify for the scholarship, it may be awarded to an upper classman from Virginia.

The establishment of the scholarship is due to the untiring energy of W. P. Dickey, '03, former secretary of the club and ex-professor of Latin in Richmond College.

In awarding the scholarship the committee will take into consideration the scholarly attainments of the applicants, as shown by their school records, and also their character, qualities of leadership and well-rounded development. This scholarship will be available for the academic year 1912-13, and all young men intending to be candidates should make application on blanks provided for the purpose not later than June 1, 1912.

In addition to the Harvard Club scholarship, students from Virginia are eligible to wards from the Price Greenleaf fund, the income from which, about $15,000 annually, is given to first-year students in Harvard College who are candidates for the degree of A. B.

This announcement is of much local interest, as it is understood that several high school and academy boys soon to graduate will compete for the scholarship. In case it is not awarded to any one aspiring to the freshman class, the scholarship is sought by several Richmond College students. The chance for a university education here offered is an excellent one, especially for any graduate who wishes to work his way through Harvard, for there are hundreds of the very best opportunities for self-help for such aspirants.
